

International Children's Culture Forum, Tampere Hall

MONDAY 30.9.2019

13:00-14:45

PARALLEL SESSIONS 1

Joined forces: culture and education for cultural participation

Mari Jalkanen: From a Museum Education Project to a Cultural Education Program

Anne Karjula: AvoT – Open Arts Education Model in Early Childhood Education

Riku Laakkonen: Curious Class – A Lempäälä Case Study

Marc Francesch-Camps: Planters project

DUETTO 1

Inclusive structures and practises for children with special needs

Noora Karjalainen: Building a Solid Path Towards Artistry –

Inclusion of Sign Language Children in Art Education

Liesbeth Water: Visual Thinking Strategies, for young people (15-24) with special needs

Jeremy Johnson: Sensory: Please Touch the Art

SOPRAANO

Are children actors in European capitals of culture?

In this session we will learn how children's cultural rights will be implemented in European capitals of culture.

Our special guest is Kaunas, European Capital of Culture 2022. Finnish ECOC 2026 candidates Tampere, Oulu and Savonlinna present their dreams concerning "children's capital of culture".

Afterwards, we will have a joined discussion about best practices. Hosted by the cities of Tampere and Oulu.

RIFFI

Children as agents and co-creators

Joanna Orlik: Very Young Culture. Successful systemic program for culture education

Lígia Ferro, Inês Barbosa: Is the city children's business? Thinking about the implementation of children's rights to urban culture

Riina Hannuksela: Who includes and who's included? Towards active agency through movement and dance

DUETTO 2

Children's cultural rights – whose business are they?

Jolita Bečienė: Culture Passport – an instrument for the development of children cultural competencies

Aron Weigl: Worldwide cultural rights for children. Arts education as a challenge of transcultural relations Collette Brownlee: "Cool,very fun and kind." Children's views matter in museums.

PIENI SALI / SMALL AUDITORIUM

Children's rights with children, workshop

Beatriz Barreiro Carril: The Charter of Cultural Rights of Children: Law, Arts and Literature

OPUS 3

14:45-15:15

COFFEE BREAK

PARALLEL SESSIONS 2Joined forces: culture and education for cultural participation

Sian James, Bethan Millett: Creative learning through the arts –

an inclusive entitlement for all children in Wales

Auni Tuovinen: Children with disabilities and participation in Cultural Education Plan; case Saarinen Special School

Sinikka Rusanen: Art pedagogy in Vantaa - how has it been possible to enhance the development, wellbeing and cultural competence of children with special needs?

Inclusive structures and practices for children with special needs

Tommi Nevala: Stop motion animation as a tool for self-expression among children with special needs

Marianna Lehtinen, Aura Linnapuomi: Every child's right - Case project SATA2

Tiia-Mari Mäkinen: Chickenshed Theatre - Theatre Changing Lives

Perspectives on international cooperation

Ulla Hokkanen: 'Wires crossed - A Balancing Act for Europe'

Annina Ylikoski: Binding together the past and the present

Kaisa Kettunen, Mihye Lim: Partnership under construction - Developing arts education together in Helsinki and Seoul

Diversity in children's culture

Analia Capponi-Savolainen: Children's singing, identity and the sense of belonging:

A narrative study in culturally diverse lower level school in Finland

Anna Rastas: Safer spaces for all the children. Cultural production and the neglect of children's perspectives in multiethnic societies.

Brechtje Van Bel: Palace of mirrors. Theatre in a diverse city: diversity in the theatre

Children's cultural rights – whose business are they?

Gerhard Jäger: Implementation of Children's Cultural Rights : Whose Responsibility ? Plea for an Arts-Integrated Curriculum

Hanna Kamensky, Hanna Backer Johnsen: Enhancing the fulfilment of children's cultural rights in Finnish Basic Education in the Arts

Anu Laukkanen: Discourses of accessibility in art education and health services

Children's cultural rights in art

Malena Janson: Is children's cinema really every child's cinema? Representation and ideology of contemporary Swedish children's cinema

Kaisa Laaksonen: Children's right to culture in children's fiction in Finland

Edvald Stefansson: Children's rights project in Iceland

PIENI SALI /SMALL AUDITORIUM*OPUS 3*RIFFI*DUETTO 1*SOPRAANO*DUETTO 2