

An Invitation to Reading Poets of Today - Voices of Tomorrow

Pionirski dom - Center for Youth Culture is the initiator of the international project Poets of Today - Voices of Tomorrow. A project that has established an international poetry collective, which strives for new forms of literary readings and ensuring a greater presence of poetry in the school system.

The project brings together 5 poets: Veronika Dintinjana from Slovenia, Harri Hertell from Finland, Radmila Petrović from Serbia, Małgorzata Lebda from Poland and Márton Simon from Hungary.

As part of the project, Pionirski dom has published the book Poets of Today - Voices of Tomorrow, which presents the poetry of the poetry collective in all five languages.

We invite you to join us on October 19, 2023, at 7:30 pm at the Frankfurt International Theatre, where the reading will take place.

Dirk Hülstrunk will take us through an evening of international poetry.

Address: HANAUER LANDSTR. 5 - 7 (ZOO-PASSAGE)

Free entrance.
